During the months of July and August, there will be no euchre played at Garden Apartments.

Thanks to the Beckmans

In June, St. John's welcomed Paula and Jerry Beckman to the pulpit to celebrate Laity Sunday. They did a wonderful job. We are lucky to have such talented people who are willing to share their gifts with us.

Jerry and Paula have followed a tradition in our church of great lay preaching. Without exception, I believe that all of the Laity Sunday preachers have been excellent. They have taken their job very seriously (even if their sermons have not always been serious!). In the weeks leading up to their preaching turn, they labored over their words; seeking to offer a message that is meaningful and true. They have been brave enough to stand up in the pulpit and share their faith stories. As a result, from our pulpit we have had lay preachers talk about how they see God in the beauty of creation, the faith lessons that can come in grief, and their own struggles to be compassionate people in a complicated world.

Thinking about Laity Sunday, I have been pondering what makes a good sermon. A good sermon is far more than a solemn lecture or an entertaining series of reflections. No preacher wants to be boring. But neither do we want to be entertaining just for entertainments sake. In the Christian tradition, a sermon is meant to be a moment in worship where God uses our voices to speak God's words. The preacher speaks for God, from the Bible, by the authority of the church, to the people.

Most of us who have spent any time at all in church have heard sermons that have set our hearts on fire. The preacher was able to speak directly to our struggles and fears, we heard the good news of the Bible clearly, and we were challenged to live out our faith. Those are the GOOD Sundays.

Most of us who have spent any time in church have also heard a sermon that was so boring we could not wait for church to be over. Our restless minds were not able to grab hold of anything that was said. Mike and I are not perfect, and sometimes we fall short. Congregations are not perfect, and sometimes we are not able to pay attention.

In the end, as hard as preachers labor to make our words clear, urgent, genuine, personal and real, the effectiveness of a sermon rests on the grace of God. John Hines said that, "Preaching is effective as long as the preacher expects something to happen-not because of the sermon, not even because of the preacher, but because of God".

It seems to me that sermons (either good, bad or indifferent) should not be judged the way we judge other things- as good or as bad; useful or useless. Sermons have been described as the Church's relentless search for Christ. Preachers search for the best way to communicate Christ clearly to their people. Congregation members search for a way to grab hold and retain the good news. Even if the search seems a little fruitless one week, we know that the search will be on again the next week. The search never ends. But we gain something each week by searching together.

Blessings,

“All That Jazz”

July 22

Special Choir Sunday

On Sunday, August 2, choir members past and present and singers of all ages are invited to participate in an "instant" choir for the 9 am sanctuary service. Gathering at 8 am in the choir room, the group will rehearse a simple anthem for about 40 minutes, and then sing for worship immediately following. This is a great chance for grandparents, grandchildren, parents, children and friends to come together in joyful praise through music. One need not be a choir member or ever have been a choir member, but the youngest participants should have completed at least first grade. If you have additional questions, you can contact Deb, our director of music, at 328-4838 or debstjohns@tds.net

Midday Masterworks, a quarterly themed mini-recital organ series presented by our organist, Deborah Krauss Smith, at two church venues in Monroe, will have another program in July. The program titled, "All That Jazz", which has been re-scheduled from last October, will be held Wednesday, July 22 at 12:15 pm at the United Methodist Church in Monroe, and repeated again that same day at 5:30 pm at St. Victor Catholic Church in Monroe. The United Methodist Church features a 2002 installation of a 3-manual, 39-rank Berghaus organ, and St. Victor Church houses a 3-manual 1968 Möller-Rodgers hybrid installed in 2006, but in two very different acoustical spaces. The half-hour programs are free and open to the public. More information on the series is available at <http://coldspringsroad.com/middaymasterworks.html>.

You Are Invited to Hear

Jazz Saxophonist, Sam Burckhardt and Organist, Stephan Grieder

Swiss-born jazz saxophonist, Sam Burckhardt of Chicago, and organist Stephan Grieder of Basel, Switzerland, will perform music from their cd titled Nachtwandler (Night Wanderer) on Thursday, July 9 at 7:30 pm next door at St. Victor Catholic Church as part of Turner Hall's on-going 2009 Swiss Heritage Series. They will also be performing at St. James Cathedral in Chicago on July 7 and on July 12 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Madison. Burckhardt, a performer and composer specializing in jazz and blues, grew up in Basel, Switzerland. He moved to Chicago in 1982 to join the band of legendary blues pianist, Sunnlynd Slim. After playing with the Mighty Blue Kings and Vanguard Aces, in 1999 he formed the Sam Burckhardt Combo, which currently plays regularly in the Chicago area and abroad. More information on Burckhardt is available at <http://samburckhardt.com/>.

Grieder is a classically-trained pianist and organist who also plays contemporary music, ranging from rock to improvised pieces. Since 1989 he has been a music teacher and music therapist at the Arxhof, a work and educational juvenile detention facility in Basel. He has also been a teacher and director of the Musikwerkstatt Basel (Basel Music Workshop) since 1991. Grieder and Burckhardt first played together in 2002 at the Basel Cathedral, and have been doing annual duet concerts ever since. This is the first time the two will be performing together in the United States. Admission to the one-hour concert is a free-will donation, $5 minimum suggested. More information is available at www.TurnerHallofMonroe.org, or by contacting Deb Krauss Smith at debstjohns@tds.net. Burckhardt and Grieder appear in part through courtesy of the Office of the Swiss Consul General in Chicago.

Greetings from Chatter!

It is the quiet time of the year around this St. John's building. I wander around looking for people to listen to. The staff has been busy getting work done before they head out on all those vacations they have so carefully planned. Some of the vacation plans include a fishing trip to Canada, the annual motorcycle trip this year to Iowa, trip to see a new grandbaby, trip to Washington D.C., trip to the cabin, those are just a few things. Of course there are the family reunions, the ball games, volleyball matches in between time. I know I will have to have good listening ears to get all the stories straight.

Ding-a Dong (pre-school and 4K) finished their school year with their usual trip to the park on the last day. Their spring fling program was really cute. The sanctuary overflowed with parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. They were even sitting in the choir loft! (Wouldn't that be a great, wonderful experience on Sunday mornings?) Natalie (she has taken Lisa's place) has been to the office to put on the calendar "meet the teacher night" (August 24) and the first of day of school (September 1).

I want to take a moment to tell you what the staff says about St. John's volunteers. They are "AWESOME"! They were really impressed with one volunteer. He received a telephone call about a window in the white garage that got broken by what looked like a stray rock— well within a half hour he was here to repair it. Staff was grateful! (I almost missed out watching him!)

Then I want to say thank you to the volunteers who do the beautiful flowers that surround St. John's. I must say it is a joy to look out the windows to see the beauty of our flowers and the nice yard. Even the squirrels have a good time running around burying buckeyes. Isn't that right, Chuck?

Spending my days in the office during the week I hear a lot and see a lot. One day, Yvonne looked at the clock after taking a telephone call and thought it was time to go home. She shut down the computer, went and locked up the door, waved at Mike and Scott across the way who were watching her with a puzzled look, proceeded back to her desk to get her purse and shut off the lights and then she asked Judy, whom hadn't started to lock files, if she was going to work late? The reply was "Yvonne, it is only 4 o'clock!!!" With a red face Yvonne went and unlocked the door and turned her computer back on and worked another hour. There was a lot of laughter about that stunt! Maybe she needs a day off???

Summer time is a great time for the staff to prepare for the Fall and Winter events. I heard Yvonne say she has advanced all students ahead a grade and in the computer file of each registered Faith Zone student she has put the word completed, meaning they have completed their class work for the year. (Now you know the importance of registering). Other things I have heard being done are Confirmation Class dates are being set, letters to parents about Confirmation, inviting all 3 year olds to Faith Zone, letters about third grade Bibles, the Christian Education booklet and the all important registration form ready for Faith Zone and Wednesday evening events. I also heard there are going to be some new workshops in Faith Zone. A discussion of some book studies, and Bible studies are being planned. As you read this you can tell the staff is preparing for a wonderful year ahead. I am looking for you to take time to participate in these St. John's events. Remember this is how your faith grows!

Summer also brings guests to the office (whether its former ministers or members) it is always a joy to listen to their stories of the past. One day, Rev. Paul Olm-Stoelting and his daughter, Kay stopped by for a tour and visit about the memories they had at St. John's.

I must say the summer is going quickly and I hope each of you have a wonderful rest of the summer and please oh please, remember I am waiting to see you on Sunday mornings. We now have a nice cool sanctuary for you to come and worship the wonderful God that has given so much to us.

*Blessings,
Chatter*
